

LIFE MEMBERSHIP
OF THE
SOUTH AUSTRALIAN RUGBY UNION LTD

The Board of the SARU has determined the following qualifications for Life Membership of the Union.

1. A Director, Officer, Appointee or Servant having served on or at the direction of the Rugby Union for a period of not less than ten calendar years.

The eligible nominee must also display meritorious service to the game of Rugby Union within South Australia

2. A player who shall have played no fewer than 25 games of rugby for the senior state representative team (based on gender) and participated in a minimum number of 250 matches with an affiliated club.

The eligible nominee must also display meritorious service to the game of Rugby Union within South Australia

3. A Referee who has been appointed to not less than 250 rugby matches in total in not less than ten seasons.

The eligible nominee must also display meritorious service to the game of Rugby Union within South Australia

4. For the purposes of paragraphs 2 and 3, a rugby match is defined as:-

- 4.1 Any game played at the direction of, or in any competition conducted by the SARU in which a team of an affiliated club participates; or
- 4.2 Any interstate game

5. Each life member shall receive from the SARU Ltd.

- 5.1 A life membership medallion and free entry into all official functions staged by the SARU.
- 5.2 A player life member and referee life member shall have their life membership recognised by placement of their name and year (that the honour was bestowed) on an honour board designed for the purpose.

6. Annual review of eligible persons.

A Committee made up of two Directors and all existing Life Members may recommend any eligible persons for life membership to the AGM of the SARU Ltd. where a 75% majority must be in agreement with the nominations.

25th February, 2002